

LIVE AT HOME - A New Way of Making Music

(November 19, 2015)

Giovanni Caccamo is one of the most original and popular singer-songwriters in Italy today. He won as best debut artist at the 2015 Festival di Sanremo and has undertaken an unusual tour called "Live at home" that has led him to perform in private homes throughout Europe.

[2]Giovanni Caccamo is a singer/songwriter produced by Caterina Caselli and discovered by Franco Battiato. In 2015 he won the "Nuove proposte" category of the Sanremo Festival with the song Ritornèrò da te. He has also won the Premio della critica "Mia Martini", the Premio "Emanuele Luzzati" and the Premio Sala Stampa "Lucio Dalla" (Sala Stampa Radio-TV).

In 2013, he began his first 2013 "Live at Home" tour, that has now reached its 50th concert. It entails a European acoustic tour of actual homes: a piano, a voice, a room, people listening; the tour also made stops in cities such as Jerusalem, Tel Aviv, Paris, Zurich and London.

"When music is written, when a new creature is born that speaks about you, about us, there is also a need for it to let these words fly loose into the air, to free them from a subjective interpretation and allow them to belong to everyone. I'd like to share my small universe with all of you as it was born: a piano, a voice, a room."

10 minutes prior to the performance, all unclaimed reserved seats will be released on a first-come first-serve basis. The event and RSVP are free and open to the general public.
