Eataly Vino Complimentary. Wine tastings every Day

I. I. (January 20, 2016)

The best way to learn about Italian wine is by tasting it. But where can you find Italian wine tastings in Manhattan?

At Eataly Wine, where on most weekdays the two floors of Italian quality wines are the backdrop for complimentary tastings held from 6 to 8 pm, often featuring meet-the-winemaker events.

Eataly Vino [2] is a few steps away from the main store's entrance on West 23rd Street. Here,with the help of a team of wine-loving experts ready to answer your questions, you can explore the rare, old, and collectible wines stored in the temperature-controlled Reserve Room.

It's a fun, friendly way to learn about the many wines and the wine regions of Italy. And no reservation is required: just pop in during the indicated hours. Tastings are scheduled a month in advance, so look online for what the next month has to offer.

Check the calendar on Eataly's website also for exclusive events—Wine Dinners are organized every month with special theme nights in Eataly's restaurants. They include an incredible five-course meal prepared by some of Eataly's best chefs, paired with the perfect wine for each course
