

Roma: Travel Tales for Beauty Lovers

The Eternal City has been a source of inspiration for artists of all times. On March 11th, join for a one-of-a-kind historical, artistic, and emotional virtual tour of Rome as seen through the creations of Bulgari

During this webinar, art historian and curator Costantino D'Orazio will guide us through the city's most iconic landmarks, from Piazza del Popolo to the Spanish Steps, illustrating the artistic legacy of these sights and the classic Bulgari designs they have inspired.

Strega Prize Winner Melania G. Mazzucco and New York Times bestselling author André Aciman will join the conversation with live readings of two short stories inspired to some of the most renowned sites in Rome.

Opening remarks will be provided by Armando Varricchio, Ambassador of Italy to the United States and Jean-Christophe Babin, Chief executive of Bulgari.

Registrations to this Zoom Webinar are free but required. Please visit >>> [2] to RSVP

Source URL: <http://newsite.iltaly.org/magazine/focus/art-culture/article/roma-travel-tales-beauty-lovers>

Links

[1] <http://newsite.iltaly.org/files/screenshot2021-03-05at220411png-2>

[2] https://us02web.zoom.us/webinar/register/2615916441979/WN_YuCLRqBeQcuwxxeEJW4HYQ